11 ACOSTA. The | Naturall | and Morall Historie of the | East and West | Indies. | Intreating of the remarkeable things of Heaven, of the | Elements, Mettalls, Plants and Beasts which are pro- | per to that Country : Together with the Manners, | Ceremonies, Lawes, Governments, and Warres of the Indians. | Written in Spanish by Joseph Acosta, and translated | into English by E. G. | London | Printed by Val. Sims for Edward Blount and William | Aspley, 1604. Small 4to, calf.

Fine copy. Rare. The best evidence of the merits of this work is, that it has been translated into almost every language in Europe. Sabin's Dictionary enumerates 22 editions. Acosta composed part of his work in Peru, and the remainder on his return to Europe. The translator was Edward Grimstone. "Replete with details of the Aborigines, before their peculiar customs had become modified by contact with the whites. Although he was one of the earliest, yet he was one of the most curious and accurate observers of the customs and peculiarities of the Aborigines who have attempted to describe them."— Field.

12 ACTON, Wm. Prostitution, its Moral, Social and Sanitary Aspects. London, 1857. 8vo.

13 ACUGNA, C. de. Voyages and Discoveries in South America. The first up the River of Amazons to Quito in Peru, and back again to Brazil. ... By Christopher d'Acvgna. The Second up the River of Plata, and thence by Land to the Mines of Potosi, By Mons. Acarete. The Third from Cayenne into Guiana, in search of the Lake of Parima, reputed the richest place in the world, by M. Grillet and Bechamel. Done into English. London, 1698. 8vo, calf.

Scarce. "Their narratives possess a greater interest from being made by the first Europeans, who traversed these regions, and penetrated to the territories of the Indian nations, the Arragoues and Nouragones."— Field.

14 ADAIR, J. The History of the American Indians ; particularly those Nations adjoining to the Mississippi, East and West Florida, Georgia, South and North Carolina, and Virginia : Containing an Account of their Origin, Language, Manners, Religious and Civil Customs, Form of Government, Punishments, Conduct in War and Domestic Life, their Habits, Diet, Agriculture, Manufactures, Diseases and Method of Cure, and other Particulars, sufficient to render it a Complete Indian System. ... London, 1775. 4to, half calf.

"Mr. Adair points out various customs of the Indians, having a striking resemblance to those of the Jews; and the great object of his work appears to be to prove that the aborigines of America are descended from that race."— Allen's Bio. Dict.

15 ADAIR, J. Another copy. London, 1775. 4to.

Map lost and some leaves torn.

16 ADALBERT. Travels in the South of Europe and in Brazil, with a Voyage up the Amazon and its Tributary the Xingu. By Heinrich Wilhelm Adalbert, Prince of Prussia. Translated by Sir Robert H. Schomburgk and John E. Taylor. With Introduction by Baron Von Humboldt. London, 1849. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth.

"If human civilization should ever penetrate into these fastnesses, the structure of this great net of rivers from north to south, may open channels of communication such as are unknown in any other part of the world."— Humboldt's Introduction.

17 ADAM, W. Genealogy of the Adam Family. Alb., 1848. 8vo.

Interleaved and with additional names in MS.

18 ADAMS, A. C. In Memoriam. Portland, 1865. 8vo.

19 ADAMS, E. P. In Memoriam. Died at Rhinebeck, ... Elizabeth Plat, wife of Charles H. Adams. New York, Bradstreet Press, 1867. (2) 4to, pp. 86.

Printed on drawing paper.

20 ADAMS, G. Genealogy of the Adams Family of Kingston. Mass. Boston, 1861. 8vo.

22 ADAMS, H. G. Sea-Side Lessons. London, 1856.

23 ADAMS, J. The Works of John Adams, Second President of the United States: With a Life of the Author, Notes and Illustrations, by his Grandson Charles Francis Adams. Boston, 1850–56. 10 vols., imp. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut.

Large paper. Two hundred copies printed.

24 ADAMS. Defence of the Constitutions of Government of the United States of America against the Attack of M. Turgot . . London, by J. Stockdale, 1794.

3 vols., 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut, by Bradstreet.

"This work is not, as its title states, a defence of the American Constitution, but a warm defence of the Constitution of Great Britain. It is the best anti-democratic treatise that we have seen; for Dr. Adams appears to dread that that is the extreme to which his countrymen will naturally lean, and he has exerted his best endeavors to obviate the evil."—Monthly Review. This writer has not distinguished between republicanism and democracy. The work did much to familiarize the European mind to the novel state of things then taking place in America. It includes the opinions of eminent writers on various republics of the world. See C. F. Adams's Life of John Adams, I, 430.

25 ADAMS. Correspondence between Hon. John Adams and the late Wm. Cunningham, Esq., commenced in 1803, and ending 1812. Boston, 1823. 8vo, uncut.

See "Jefferson's Memoirs," by Randolph, Vol. IV, p. 398.

27 [ADAMS, John] and [LEONARD, Daniel]. Novanglus and Massachusettensis; or Political Essays on the Principal Points of Controversy, between Great Britain and her Colonies. To which are added Letters, lately written by President Adams to William Tudor. Boston. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut.

Notwithstanding the positive statement on the title, it is satisfactorily settled that Daniel Leonard was the author of Massachusettensis's Letters. Some of the pages signed Novanglus were reprinted in London.

27 ADAMS, J. Genealogy of the Descendants of Richard Haven, of Lyon. Boston, 1843.

Half morocco, gilt top, interleaved, by Bradstreet.

28 ADAMS, J. F. Typographia. Philadelphia, 1857.

"An elaborate performance. Some of the Sonnets by Camoens are unsurpassed."—Lowndes.

38 Addison. The Work of the Right Honourable Joseph Addison, Esq. London, MDCCXXI. 4 vols., half calf.

39 Addison, Jos. The Free-Holder; or Political Essays. London, 1758. 8vo, calf.

40 An Address and Recommendations to the States, by the United States in Congress Assembled, with sundry Papers referred to in the Address. N. Y., 1870. 8vo, half mor. uncut.

"Should we now think ourselves little interested in the subjects of these American State Papers, we may, however, be much gratified in perusing them, as pieces of fine, energetic writing, and masterly eloquence. It would be a curious speculation for the philosophical enquirer, to account for the perfection to which the English language has been carried in our late colonies, amidst the clamours and horrors of war."—M. R., XLVIII.

41 ———. The same. New York, 1870. 4to, uncut.

151 ARABIAN NIGHTS Entertainments Translated by E. W. Lane. 600 cuts by Harvey. 1853. Royal 8vo, morocco extra.

"The Arabian Nights have lost none of their charms for me. All the learned and wiseacres of England cried out against this wonderful work, upon its first appearance; Gray among the rest. Yet I doubt whether any man, except Shakespeare, has afforded so much delight, if we open our hearts to receive it. The author of the Arabian Nights was the greatest benefactor the East ever had, not excepting Mahomet. How many hours of pure happiness has he bestowed on six and twenty millions of hearers. All the springs of the desert have less refreshed the Arabs than those delightful tales, and they cast their gems and genii over our benighted and foggy region."— Leigh Hunt.

481 BRANT, Sebastian. Ship of Fools, translated by Alexander Barclay, being a Faithful Reprint of the Pynson edition of 1509, with introduction, notes, and glossary by T. H. Jamieson, illustrated with nearly one hundred and twenty quaint and interesting facsimile wood engravings from the Originals in the Basle edition of 149. Lond., 1874. 2 vols., cr. 4to, uncut.

This is a reproduction of an extremely curious, interesting and once widely popular Satire, which, under the allegory of a ship freighted with fools of all kinds, held the mirror up to the prevailing vices and follies of every rank and profession at that imporant and suggestive period of history immediately preceding the Reformation. The text of Pynson's edition has been printed intact to preserve so interesting a monument of the English language. The illustrations will be found to have been reproduced with the utmost faithfulness, and their whole tone to be in perfect keeping with the originals. So valuable a contribution to the history of early wood-engraving and to the illustration of mediæval life and literature has seldom appeared.

498 BRIEF and True Narrative of the Hostile Conduct of the Barbarous Natives Towards The Dutch Nation. Translated by E. B. O'Callaghan. Albany, J. Munsell, MDCCCLXIII. 8vo, half red morocco, gilt top, uncut.

Only 50 copies printed. "As late as 1655, the Indians of New York were revenging the murderous slaughter of four hundred of their countrymen at Pavonia, by that sanguinary coward, Governor Kieft. The petition shows that three hundred of the Dutch colony had been slain, and one hundred carried away captives. So audacious had the fierce Indians become, that several of the Dutch had been killed on the island of Manhattan; and on one occasion sixty-four canoes loaded with the savages had landed on the shore of the North river, and before daylight, had filled the streets of New Amsterdam. The first objects upon which the eyes of the astonished Dutchmen rested in the morning, were the crowds of savages to whose forbearance alone they owed their lives."— Field.

560 BRY, Theodore de. Collectiones Peregrinationum in Indiam Occidentalem, IX, Partibus comprehensæ a Theodoro, Joan-Theodoro de Bry, publicatæ. Francofurti ad Mœnum, 1590-1602. Parts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 9, 7 vols., folio, calf antique.

A few leaves wanting. This is a series of what is known as the "Grands Voyages" and contains all of the Latin version which was published during the life time of the elder De Bry, and as the title of Part IX bears the words "Postrema Pars," it is evident that it was intended to stop there, but the success of the enterprise induced its continuation. It would be easy to expatiate on the beauty, desirability, utility, and value of this grand series of works but we content ourselves by referring the reader to the descriptions of the work in Brunet's Manual, or, the mere English reader to the translation of the same in "Sabin's Dictionary of Books relating to America."

"No such expensive efforts were ever after made by any expedition or colony to collect such vivid and picturesque material of the New World, its inhabitants, and natural products."—Stevens's "Bibliotheca Historica."

Illustrations of the Manners, Customs, and Condition of the North American Indians: in a series of Letters and Notes, written during Eight Years of Travel and Adventure among the Wildest and most Remarkable Tribes now existing. London, 1851. 2 vols., imp. 8vo, half red levant morocco.

One of twelve copies in which the plates are beautifully colored by hand. The later editions are very inferior having been printed in colors.

"Mr. Catlin is the Historian of the Red Races of mankind; of a world fast fading away, and leaving hardly a trace or a wreck behind. With his pen and pencil he has brought the existence of these wild and uncivilized beings so vividly before our eyes, that we seem to have accompanied him in his wanderings, seen them, mixed with them, and impressed the recollection of their forms and features, their costume, strange customs, feasts, ceremonies, religious rites, wars, dances, sports, and other modes of life, distinctly upon our minds."— Literary Gazette.

812 CATLIN, Geo. The same. 10th Edition. London, 1866.

1253 DIBDIN, Charles. Sea Songs. Plates by Cruikshank. 1854.

DIBDIN'S BIBLIOGRAPHICAL WORKS.

An English Reviewer remarks, "we are decidedly of opinion that no bibliographical collection can be complete without Mr. Dibdin's volumes which are, independent of the solid information they contain, frequently enlivened by literary anecdotes, and rendered generally interesting by great variety of observation, and acuteness of remark."

1154 DIBDIN, T. F. Poems. London: printed for the Author, 1797. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Very rare. "In the first edition of the Bibliomania is a curious note respecting these poems, from which it appears that 500 copies were printed, the major part of which were destroyed. 'My only consolation (says Dibdin) is that the volume is exceedingly rare!'"

1255 DIBDIN. Fenelon on the Education of Daughters. Cheltenham, 1805. 8vo, calf.

1256 DIBDIN. Specimen Bibliothecæ Britannicæ. Specimen of a Digested Catalogue of Rare, Curious, and Useful Books in the English Language all appertaining to British Literature and Antiquities. London, 1808. 8vo.

Forty copies only were privately printed, not published.

1257 DIBDIN. The Bibliomania; or Book Madness; containing some account of the History, Symptoms, and Cure of this fatal Disease. In an epistle addressed to Richard Heber, Esq. London, 1809. 8vo, boards, uncut.

First edition of this amusing and instructive book, now very rare.

1258 DIBDIN. The Same. Privately Reprinted for the Club of Odd Sticks. New York, 1864.

UNIQUE COPY. A sumptuous reprint on Whatman's Drawing Paper, and the only copy printed in this size. Illustrated by six fine portraits including a splendid proof of Alexander Pope, fine portrait of Earl Spencer, Martin Folkes after Hogarth, etc. A most interesting supplement to any collection of Dibdin's exhibiting the influence and progress of the disease in America.

1159 DIBDIN. The Same. Privately reprinted for the Club of Odd Sticks, 1864. 4to.

One of seven copies on Whatman's Drawing Paper.

Only 57 copies printed this size.

1261 [DIBDIN.] Specimen of an English Debure. London, 1810.

Fifty copies privately printed. Extremely rare — presentation copy — not in the Menzies collection.

1262 DIBDIN. Typographical Antiquities: or the History of Printing in England, Ireland, and Scotland, Containing Memoirs of our Ancient Printers, and a Register of the Books Printed by them. Begun by the late Joseph Ames. Considerably augmented by William Herbert, of Cheshunt, Herts; And now greatly enlarged, with Copious Notes, and illustrated with appropriate Engravings; Comprehending the History of English Literature, and a View of the Progress of the Art of Engraving, in Great Britain. London, 1810–19. 4 vols., 4to, boards, uncut.

Very fine copy of this useful work.

1263 DIBDIN. Bibliomania; or Book Madness: A Bibliographical Romance, in Six Parts. Illustrated with Cuts. London, Printed for the Author, 1811. 2 vols., 8vo, uncut.

Illustrated by about 50 plates inserted, all good impressions, very scarce, with a title to two volumes.

1264 [DIBDIN.] Lincolne Nosegay, a brefe Table of Certaine Bokes in the possession of Maister Dibdin, Clerk. [London, 1811].

Very rare; only thirty-six copies having been printed. Contains descriptions of nineteen books then in the author's possession, but which afterwards passed into the libraries of Heber and Earl Spencer.

1265 [DIBDIN.] Bibliography, a Poem, in Six Books. With Preface and Notes. London, 1812. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Very rare; fifty copies only privately printed, not published, the greater part of which were destroyed by the author. "There is no title-page to this effusion from the pen of Dr. Dibdin."— Martin.

1266 DIBDIN. Bibliotheca Spenceriana; or a Descriptive Catalogue of the Books printed in the Fifteenth Century, and of many Valuable First Editions, in the Library of George John Earl Spencer, K.G., etc., etc., etc. London, Printed for the Author, 1814–15. 4 vols., imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

"This catalogue contains only the works printed in the fifteenth century and the Editiones Principes. It is compiled with the greatest care and industry, and those who have had occasion to consult its pages, can testify to its accuracy and great utility. It is the finest private collection in Europe; the catalogue will ever be regarded as of the first importance to the theologian, the historian, and the critic and as a perfect model for the bibliographer."— Lowndes.

1267 DIBDIN. Ædes Althorpianæ; or an Account of the Mansion, Books, and Pictures, at Althorp; the Residence of George John Earl Spencer, K.G. To which is added a Supplement to the Bibliotheca Spenceriana. London, 1822. 2 vols., imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

See the author's Reminiscences, II, 557–94, for the interesting account of the publication of this work, where it appears that the cost of engraving the portraits was upwards of £2,000. It was designed as a supplement to the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, and contains accounts of the ancestors of Earl Spencer; of the Mansion at Althorp; of the gallery, with engravings of the most important pictures; and of editions of the Scriptures, Aldine editions, and books printed in the fifteenth century, not contained in the former volumes.

1268 DIBDIN. A Descriptive Catalogue of the Books printed in the Fifteenth Century, lately forming Part of the Library of the Duke Di Cassano Serra, and now the Property of George John Earl Spencer, K.G. With a General Index of Authors and Editions contained in the Present Volume, and in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana and Ædes Althorpianæ. London, Printed for the Author, 1823. Imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Forms another supplemental volume to the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, with an index to the seven volumes, and completes the work.

1269 DIBDIN. The Bibliographical Decameron; or, Ten Days Pleasant Discourse upon Illuminated Manuscripts, and Subjects connected with Early Engravings, Typography, and Bibliography. London, Printed for the Author, 1817, 3 vols., Rl. 8vo, bds., uncut.

Also on large paper, 3 vols., imp. 8vo. "This work may be considered as a continuation of the Bibliomania, the same characters being introduced in the dialogues. From the information which it contains, and the splendor of the decorations and printing, it will ever be considered as a model of excellence and good taste in typography and the arts.

1270 DIBDIN. A Bibliographical, Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. By the Rev. Thomas Frognall Dibdin. London, Printed for the Author, 1821.
3 vols., royal 8vo, boards, uncut.

"This work contains much curious information respecting the Mss. and rare works in public and private libraries abroad. It is printed and embellished in the same style of excellence as the Doctor's other works." — Lowndes.

"A work calculated to have as intoxicating an effect on the imagination of literary antiquaries, as the adventures of the heroes of the Round Table on all true knights, or the tales of the early American voyagers on the ardent spirits of their age. It has not passed, however, without some hostile (though unfounded) remarks from the printers, binders, and librarians of France." — Wrangham.

1271 [DIBDIN.] A Series of Groups, Illustrating the Physiognomy, Manners, and Character of the People of France and Germany. By George Lewis. Containing sixty plates suitable to Illustrate the Original Edition of the Tour in France and Germany. London, 1823. Imp. 8vo.

In parts as published. Mr. Lewis accompanied Dr. Dibdin on his "Southern Tour" during which these drawings were made.

1272 [DIBDIN.] Lettre Neuvième relative à la Bibliothèque de Rouen, traduite de l'Anglais, avec des Notes par T. Licquet, Conservateur de cette Bibliothèque. Paris, 1821.
Roy. 8vo, boards, uncut.

One hundred copies only of this rare tract were printed. It seldom occurs for sale.

1273 [DIBDIN.] Lettre Trentième concernant l'Imprimerie et la Librarie de Paris traduite de l'Anglais, avec des Notes, par G. A. Crapelet. Paris, 1821. Imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Only one hundred copies; the notes and preface, which contain so much that is "silly" and "scurrilous," drew from Dr. Dibdin the following reply, A Roland for an Oliver.

1274 DIBDIN. A Roland for an Oliver; or Brief Remarks upon the Preface and Notes of G. A. Crapelet, attached to his Translation of the Thirtieth Letter of the Bibliographical, Antiquarian, and Picturesque Tour. London, 1821. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Of this excessively rare morceau, the rarest perhaps of all Dr. Dibdin's works, only thirty-six copies were privately printed.

1275 [DIBDIN.] Lettre d'un Relieur Français un Bibliographe Anglais, par Lesné Belieur à Paris. Paris, 1822. 8vo, bds., uncut.

Also on large paper. One hundred copies only printed; very rare.

1276 DIBDIN. The Library Companion; or the Young Man's Guide, and the Old Man's Comfort, in the Choice of a Library. London, 1824. 2 vols., 8vo, boards, uncut.

From an anecdote recorded at page 394 of this edition, concerning "certain buckskins," in the edition of 1823, and which is omitted in the subsequent ones, that acquired the title of the "Breeches Edition."

"It contains much curious and important bibliographical information not elsewhere to be found, and will at all times be consulted, as a work of reference, by the bibliographer, biographer, and historian."— Lowndes.

1277 DIBDIN. An Introduction to the Knowledge of Rare and Valuable Editions of the Greek and Latin Classics. Together with an Account of Polyglot Bibles, Polyglot Psalters, Hebrew Bibles, Greek Bibles and Greek Testaments; The Greek Fathers and the Latin Fathers. Fourth Edition; greatly enlarged and Corrected. London, 1827. 2 vols., imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

One of fifty copies printed on large paper, to range with the Bibliotheca Spenceriana. "This edition is entirely rewritten, and contains for the first time an account of the best editions of the Hebrew Bibles and of the Greek and Latin Fathers."— Lowndes.

1278 DIBDIN. Sermon ... St. Paul's, May, 1828. Printed for Private Distribution, 1830. 8vo.

With autographic inscription by the author. "Only 50 copies."

1279 [DIBDIN.] Horæ Expingianæ, Some Account of the Church and Parish of Exping, with Autograph of the Author and plate. [n.p., 1832.] 8vo, pp. 11, uncut.

1280 [DIBDIN.] Bibliophobia. Remarks on the Present Languid and Depressed State of Literature and the Book Trade. In a Letter addressed to the Author of the Bibliomania. By Mercurius Rusticus. With Notes by Cato Parvus. London, 1839. 8vo, boards, uncut.

1281 [DIBDIN.] The Same. London, 1839. Imp. 8vo, bds., uncut.

Large paper. One hundred copies only printed for "Those whom it may concern." "Fear is the order of the day. To those very natural and long established fears of Bailiffs and Tax Gatherers, must now be added the fear of Reform, of Cholera, and of Books,— page 6."

The index, which was published subsequently, is often wanting.

1283 DIBDIN. The same. 1836. Half morocco.

1284 DIBDIN. A Bibliographical Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in the Northern Counties of England and in Scotland. London, 1838. 2 vols., roy, 8vo, boards, uncut.

In this work the author concluded his tours. It is an essential companion to France and Germany; and, as it describes some collections that have ceased to exist, possesses an historical interest.

1285 DIBDIN. Bibliomania; or Book-Madness; A Bibliographical Romance. Illustrated with Cuts, by Thomas Frognall Dibdin, D.D. New and Improved Edition ... including a Key to the Assumed Characters in the Drama. London: H. G. Bohn, 1842. Medium 8vo, boards, uncut.

This edition was undertaken by Mr. Walmsly. It contains a key to the characters, etc., and a supplement, edited by Dr. Dibdin himself. The copies on large paper, imp. 8vo, have title-pages for two volumes.

"The Bibliomania is written in dialogues or conversations, the characters introduced are well-known book collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of books and book collectors, and an account of the rare articles in their collections, and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. It will be always consulted as an authority."— Lowndes.

1375 DRAMATISTS of the Restoration, The. Edited by James Maidment and W. H. Logan, Esqs. Including the Dramatic Works of Sir William Davenant, John Crowne, Wilson and Cokain. Edinburgh, 1870, etc. In all 11 vols., 8vo.

This series of the Dramatists, which comprises Writers of Comedy, who for the most part flourished after the extinction of the Commonwealth, ranges in size with Pickering's Editions of Webster, Peele, Marlowe, etc. As the text of most of the works of the authors reprinted in this series has, in later editions, been either imperfectly or corruptly dealt with, the several plays are now presented in an unmutilated form, carefully collated with the earliest and best edition. Biographical Notices and Brief Notes accompany the works of each Author.

One of the most violent invectives against Washington, and far more abusive than the famous letter of Thomas Paine. An example: "Had you obtained Promotion, as you expected for the services [you] rendered after Braddock's Defeat, your sword would have been drawn against your country." This was Duane's first essay in America. See [Carpenter's] "Jefferson," II, 130, 412." Sabin's Dictionary, No. 20989.

1482 EGYPT. Description de l' Egypte, ou recueil des Observations et des Recherches qui ont été faites en Égypte pendant l'Expedition de l'Armée Francaise, publié par les ordres de sa Majesté l'Empereur Napoléon le Grande. Seconde édition, 9 atlas folio volumes, in parts, of engravings, containing nearly 900 splendid engravings (many of immense size) of Antiquities, Views, Natural History, etc. Descriptive letterpress. Paris, 1820. 26 vols., 8vo.

When Napoleon invaded Egypt, he attached to his army a most distinguished corps of Savans. The most illustrious philosophers and artists of the age, Berthollet, Fourier, Lasrey, Desgenettes, Geoffrey St. Hilaire, Denon, and others, attended the Expedition. Genius in every department hastened to range itself under the banner of the youthful hero. Accurate drawings were made of the antiquities, vases, marbles, inscriptions, and the gigantic remains of temples, obelisks, and sepulchral monuments, as well as the natural history, etc., of that most interesting country, and the results embodied in this superb work — a magnificent monument at once to the genius of Napoleon, and the enlightened liberality of the French Government. The size and execution of the engravings are such as must always excite admiration — many of the plates being the largest ever produced. Indeed it is the most glorious monument of Napoleon's patronage of the Fine Arts; and one of the most magnificent productions of France since the Revolution.

A most valuable book of reference for Local History, Historical Events, Family History, Biography, etc., extending over a century and a quarter.

The Gentleman's Magazine and London Magazine, must be consulted when any particular point in the history of the period is to be discussed. They may even be looked at in conjunction with more regular histories. The times are very faithfully reflected in these passing mirrors. Specimens of the most noted publications of the day are to be found there; essays occur, often of great merit, and constitutional subjects are treated; and some even of political economy. The poetry of Swift and Pope may be seen in extracts adorning those passages like the verses of the meanest of their contemporaries. Here may be noticed the first efforts of the strength of Johnson. We have the deaths, the marriages, the literary productions of many of whom we do not hear, and who little thought so soon to be forgotten; and if a walk to Westminster Abbey could occupy the mind of Addison, I see not why the student may not resort, for similar purposes of amusement and improvement, to these brief chronicles — these fleeting sketches of life and its concerns — these striking images of the transitory nature of everything human.— Prof. Smyth's Lectures on Modern History.

1965 HAMILTON. Observations on Certain Documents contained in No. v and vi of "The History of the United States for the year 1796" in which the Charge of Speculation against Alexander Hamilton Late Secretary of the Treasury, is fully refuted. Written by Himself. Philadelphia: John Fenno, 1797. 8vo, pp. 37, lviii, morocco extra.

Scarce. Fine copy of the original edition. This work was zealously destroyed by the friends of General Hamilton.

"'Written by himself,' or this little book of 96 pages would most likely have been pronounced the greatest libel upon the greatest man New York ever produced. It has been claimed to the honor of his friends that they endeavored to suppress it. It was copyrighted, and never reprinted but once until recently, but scarce as it has become, it is now part of American literature. Hamilton was charged with 'a connection with one James Reynolds for purposes of improper pecuniary speculation.' 'My real crime,' confesses the late Secretary not without a blush, 'is an amorous connection with his [Reynolds] wife for a considerable time, with his privity and connivance.' That was how he came to be the private banker of the husband of Mrs. Reynolds, 'from whose conversation it was quickly apparent that other than pecuniary consolation would be acceptable,' p. 18. Truth never appeared so naked as in these confessions of Alexander Hamilton."— Stevens.

1966 HAMILTON. Observations. [Another Edition.] Philadelphia: Printed Pro Bono Publico, 1800. Boards, uncut.

Fine copy of this rare edition, with other pamphlets on Hamilton, Jefferson, etc., an extremely rare and valuable collection, put forth by Hamilton's enemies.

One hundred copies only printed. This first English edition is so rare, that only five or six copies are known. That which is described in the "Bibliotheca Greenvilliana," 1, 185–186, had been bought by Lord Oxford, at Frankfort, about 1710, for £100. Another brought the same price at the Nassau sale, and Stevens's copy sold in Boston, in 1870, for $975.00.

This "reproduction" has been executed by the newly discovered process of Photo-Lithography. The imitation of the old style type is perfect, and the twenty-three quaint and curious engravings by John White, the English painter who, at the command of Queen Elizabeth, accompanied Sir Walter Raleigh in his famous expedition, are reproduced with marvelous accuracy.

This valuable collection was purchased after the death of Edward Harley, second Earl of Oxford, by T. Osborne, the well known bookseller, for £30,000. The catalogue, describing 360,000 volumes, was made by T. Oldys, with a preface by Dr. S. Johnson. The books were not sold by auction, and the prices were not affixed as is usual with booksellers.

2023 [HARRISSE, Henry.] Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima. A Description of Works relating to America, published between the Years 1492 and 1551. New York, 1856. 4to, uncut.

Large paper. 99 copies only printed. Elegantly printed on very superior paper. This is, in spite of a few typographical inaccuracies, the most complete and satisfactory work of its kind. The descriptions are exact, and a collation of each book is attached. Its arrangement is chronological, but an alphabetical index is added.

"It is the fashion to decry the works of this author, because of the few blunders that are met with in his text; but who can expect perfection in any book, especially one of bibliography? In spite of that portentous German voyager, 'Ander Schiffahrt,' Mr. Harrisse's Bibliotheca is the best and most useful bibliographical essay in existence upon the early literature relating to the New World." — Quaritch.

2028 [HARRISSE.] Notes on Columbus. 13 photographs. New York, privately printed, MDCCCLXVI. Folio.

An uncut copy of this magnificent and almost unattainable book of which ninety-nine copies only were printed exclusively for private distribution. It is to the munificence of S. L. M. Barlow, Esq., of New York, that the possessors of this grand work are indebted for its production. It consists of a series of notes and extracts from rare books, relating to Columbus, with numerous valuable bibliographical and historical notes. It contains also an account of the poems, eulogies, etc., in honour of Columbus, and is a treasury of fact and fancy, relative to the great navigator.

2046 HASLEWOOD, Joseph, Editor. England's Helicon. A Collection of Pastoral and Lyric Poems. Third Edition. Also Tusser's Paradise of Dainty Devices.

A most interesting set of books, Joseph Haslewood's own copy interleaved, inserted are many printed slips of ancient poems of which it is asserted that but a very few were printed, the book is annotated throughout by Haslewood, and contains much manuscript matter in his hand-writing. It is, in fact, the identical set used by Mr. Haslewood in preparing a new edition for the press, and possesses unusual interest for a collector and to add to this interest they are bound in russia by Roger Payne.

2047 HASTINGS, Warren. Speeches of the Managers and Counsel in the Trial of Warren Hastings. London, 1859. 4 vols., 8vo.

The most complete record published of this great trial. The speeches of Prosecution and Counsel for the Defence, including those of Burke, Fox, Sheridan, Pelham, Law, Plumer and Dallas, are printed as nearly as possible in the original words as they have been preserved. The general introduction comprises a short narrative of the series of events which form the foundation of the charges, the speeches referred to, and in each volume is given a Summary of the proceedings on the trial, with a view to show the immediate connection of the speeches throughout.

Comprising all the Remarkable Incidents which took place at their Missionary Stations during that period. Interspersed with Anecdotes, Historical Facts, Speeches of Indians, and other Interesting Matter. ...Philadelphia, 1820. 8vo, half morocco, gilt top, uncut.

"Heckewelder's narrative is a full and undoubtedly faithful record of all the details of the Mission, its wonderful success and its appalling destruction. He was able to give a thousand particulars from personal experience, and it is at once an interesting story, abounding in veritable incidents; and a valuable history, fortified by impregnable facts. Forty years of missionary life among the Delaware and Shawnese tribes, had amply fitted the author to record the facts which fell under his own knowledge." — Field.

2216 HONE, W. Apocryphal New Testament, being the Gospels, Epistles, and other Pieces, now extant, attributed in the first Four Centuries to Jesus Christ, His Apostles, not included in the New Testament by its Compilers. Translated from the Original Tongues. 1820. 8vo, cloth.

It is uncertain whether the books of the New Testament were declared canonical by the Nicene Council, or by some other, or when or by whom they were collected into a volume; it is certain, however, that they were considered genuine and authentic by the most early Christian writers, and that they were selected from various other Gospels and Epistles, the titles of which are mentioned in the works of the fathers and the early historians of the church.

2217 HONE'S History of the Memorable Blood Conspiracy. London, 1816. 8vo.

2236 HORN. GeorgI HornI | De | Originibvs | Americanis | Libri Qvatvor. | ... Hagae Comitis, | 1652. 8vo.

Written at the suggestion of De Laet, in answer to the "Origine Gentium Americanorum" of Hugo Grotius, from whom it provoked an angry rejoinder, which was answered by a counter-treatise by J. de Laet. Whatever may be thought of Horn's theories concerning the original population of the Western continent, they are at least very curious and supported by an infinite wealth of learning indeed, all of these essays display a degree of learning.—See the "Biographie Universelle," xx, 399; Sabin's Dictionary.

2237 HORNE. An Introduction to the Study of Bibliography. To which is prefixed a Memoir o the Public Libraries of the Antients. Illustrated with Engravings. 10 plates. London, 1814. 2 vols., 8vo, boards, uncut.

2276 HUBBARD, William. A | Narrative | of the Troubles with the | Indians | In New-England, from the first planting thereof in the | year 1607, to this present year 1677. But chiefly of the late Troubles in the two last years, 1675, and 1676. | To which is added a Discourse about the Warre with the | Pequods | In the year 1637, | By W. Hubbard, Minister of Ipswich. | Published by Authority. | Boston, | printed by John Foster, in the year 1677. 4to, morocco extra, by Bradstreet.

The rare and curious map often wanting is in the finest condition, and is described as follows on the map itself: "A map of New England, being the first that ever was here cut, and done by the best pattern that could be had, which being in some places defective, it made the other less exact; yet doth it sufficiently show the situation of the country, and conveniently well the distance of places, etc.

This book has been frequently reprinted, and will always remain an authority upon the subjects of which it treats. It possessss in itself high bibliographical interest, for according to Thomas's History of Printing, it is probably the first book printed in Boston, all the printing in the British Colonies, previous to 1676, being done at Cambridge, and in that year the first press was set up at Boston.

2277 HUBBARD. The Happiness of a People In the Wisdome of their Rulers Directing and in the Obedience of their Brethren, a Sermon before the Governour, Council and Deputies of the Massachusetts Colony. Preached at Boston, May 3d, 1676, being the day of Election there. Boston, printed by John Foster, 1676.

Usually found with Hubbard's of which it is believed never to have formed a part, having been printed a year previously.

True and complete set of this standard history.

2336 [HUTCHINSON.] A Collection of Original Papers Relative to the History of the Colony of Massachusetts-Bay. Boston: New England, 1769. 8vo, half morocco.

A beautiful copy, uniform with the preceding No., and rare. "This collection of papers was published by Lieut.-Gov. Hutchinson, 'to support and elucidate the principal facts related in the first part of the History of Massachusetts Bay, and may serve as an appendix to it.' 'The author of that history was possessed of many other ancient and very curious original papers, which are irrecoverably lost by an unfortunate event sufficiently known.' (This alludes to the destruction of his papers by a mob, at the time of the Riots in Boston on account of the Stamp Act, in 1765.)"

For an interesting account of the various editions of Hutchinson's History, see Deane's "Hutchinson's Biography," No. 537, supra.

2393 Ives, J. C. Report upon the Colorado River of the West, Explored in 1857 and 1858. ... 27 Plates and Map. Washington, 1861. 4to.

This river, flowing between perpendicular walls a mile and a quarter in altitude, is not the only development of this exploration which excites our interest. Lieutenant Ives was the first to give us the results of an intelligent observer of the celebrated, yet almost mythical, fortified villages of the Moquis Indians.

JACKSON, John. History of Wood Engraving, Including a Treatise on Wood Engraving, Historical and Practical, with Upwards of 300 Beautiful Woodcut Illustrations, Including Facsimiles from the Works of Albert Durer. London: C. Knight, 1839. Imp. 8vo, half morocco, uncut, rare.

With this copy is the Third Preface to a Treatise on Wood Engraving, by W. A. Chatto. This third preface is an interesting addition — it appears that Mr. Jackson desired to absorb all the glory of this work — after reading this 3d preface he is very much inclined to think with Falstaff — "Lord how this world is given to lying" — including in this world John Jackson.

"The History of Wood Engraving is a noble volume, unique in its way, and no library will be complete without it. Mr. Jackson's reputation rests upon a firm basis — his name is attached to some of the brightest and best of the modern engravings. He is one of the few living pupils of Bewick — and one who follows in the steps, and supports the reputation of his celebrated master." — Polytechnic Journal.

The author was president of the convention in Charleston, S. C., which passed the ordinance of secession. It was really printed in London.

1424 JANSON, C. W. The Stranger in America; Containing Observations made during a Long Residence in that Country, with Biographical Particulars of Public Characters; Illustrated by Engravings. 10 plates. London, 1807. 4to uncut.

"This large and most ill-arranged volume contains, apparently, whatever Mr. Janson could recollect of America, aiding his memory by a few notes and memorandums. He went to America with high expectations, engaged in several speculations, all of which failed, and after thirteen years' absence, returned to England, where as many others have done since, he vented his spleen in writing a book."—Monthly Review, LIII, 443.

2425 JARDINE, Sir W. Naturalists' Library, with 1200 colored plates, and numerous portraits and memoirs of Eminent Naturalists. London, 1850. 40 vols., foolscap 8vo, cloth.

Sir W. Jardine's coadjutors in this admirable series were Swainson, Selby, Macgillivray, Waterhouse, Duncan, Hamilton, Smith and others. "We could hardly have thought that any new serial would have obtained our approbation so entirely as the 'Naturalists' Library!' but the price is so low, the colored plates so elegant, and the descriptions so very scientific and correct that we cannot withhold from it our warmest praise; the whole is a perfect bijou, and as valuable as pretty."—Literary Gazette.

2569 KENNET, Bp. History of England, by Milton, Daniel, Sir T. More, Bacon, etc., to the Death of William III; portraits by Vanderbank. 1706–19. 3 vols., folio, calf.

These three volumes contain the best History of England extant. The history of a Prince is, or it ought to be the history of his Country. That these histories are ably written, and by the hands of Masters, it would be idle to controvert. That they will be read when the essays and dissertations of modern historians shall have lost their ascendancy over the men, it is no presumption to predict. That I, for one, now think highly of them may be seen by what is above written." — Notes in the Volumes by Dr. Adams, the Author.

A New | Voyage | to | Carolina ; | Containing the | Exact Description and Natural History | of that | Country : | Together with the Present State thereof | and | A Journal | Of a Thousand Miles Travel'd thro' several | Nations of Indians. | Giving a particular Account of their Customs, | Manners, etc., | By John Lawson, Gent, Surveyor | -General of North Carolina. 1 Map and plate. London, | printed in the Year, 1709. 4to, l. p. copy, mor. extra, mor. linings by Bradstreet.

We know of only one other copy on Large Paper. It is the relation of a man of acute habits of observation, some intelligence, and doubtless entire veracity regarding the Indians of North Carolina, at a very interesting period of their existence. The author was a land surveyor in the employment of the government, and was the unhappy cause of the exile of the Tuscarora tribe to New York, and its consequent incorporation into the Iroquois Confederacy, by which its name was changed to the Six Nations. As the surveyor was the precursor of the settler, who seized upon and occupied the lands of the savages, he was always the especial object of their detestation.

A scholarly and exhaustive work on the subject.

2738 LEEDS, T. The American Almanack for the Year of Christain Account 1731. Being the third after Bissextile or Leap Year. By Titan Leeds, Philomat. Printed and sold by William Bradford in New York, and Andrew Bradford in Phila., [1751.] 8 vols., 12mo, polished calf, gilt edges, by F. Bedford.

After 1733, the imprint reads "Printed and sold by William Bradford in New York." This is a series of eight of these exceedingly rare productions of Bradford's press, embracing the years 1731, '32, '33, '37, '38, '39, '42 and 1743, uniform in size and binding, and in the finest condition. A remarkable instance of the well known thrifty habit of the printer occurs in that for the year 1738; a portion of which is printed upon paper one side of which having previously been used, the printed sides were pasted face to face, and the sheets of the Almanack on the blanks. These have been carefully separated by Mr. Bedford, and exhibit a curious example of printing-house economy. In that for 1739, in May, is found the often quoted entry, "the printer born the 20th, 1663," which, notwithstanding the inscription (1660) upon his tomb-stone, is now generally admitted to have been the date of his birth. It would be very difficult, if indeed it were possible, to obtain a more desirable, finer, or more interesting specimen of Bradford's press than these handsome little volumes present

A facsimile of the Spanish letter of Columbus, published in 1493, from the only known copy in the Ambrosian Library, Milan, with a literary and bibliographical description by Mr. James Lenox. A few copies only printed for presentation.

2748 [LEONARD, Daniel.] Massachusettensis; or a Series of Letters, containing a Faithful State of many important and striking Facts, which laid the Foundation of the Present Troubles in the Province of the Massaachusetts-Bay.... Lond., 1776. 8vo, uncut.

"On my return from Congress," says John Adams, "in November, 1774, I found the Massachusetts Gazette teeming with political speculations, and Massachusettensis shining like to the moon among the lesser stars. I instantly knew him to be my friend Sewell, and was told he excited great exultation among the Tories, and many gloomy apprehensions among the Whigs." Notwithstanding this positive statement it is now ascertained that these letters were written by Daniel Leonard of Taunton.

Wherein the Certainty of the Christian Religion is demonstrated, by infallible Proof from Four Rules, which are incompatible to any Imposture that ever yet has been, or that can possibly be. In a Letter to a Friend. The Eighth Edition. London, Printed by J. Applebee and sold by John Checkley, at the Sign of the Crown and Blue Gate, over against the West-End of the Town-House in Boston, 1723. [Followed by] The Speech of Mr. John Checkley upon his Tryal at Boston in New England, for publishing "A Short and Easie Method with the Deists, etc.," to which is added, The Jury's Verdict, His Plea in Arrest of Judgment, and the Sentence of the Court. Second Edition. [And] A Specimen of a True Dissenting Catechism upon Right True-Blue Dissenting Principles, etc. London, J. Applebee, 1738.

3 pieces in 1 vol., 8vo, crushed levant morocco, gilt edges, by F. Bedford.

Beautiful copy of this rare work. It is of the highest interest in connection with the liberty of the press in New England. Checkley was prosecuted at the Inferior Court in Boston, in 1724, for publishing and selling this book, which, was called, "a false and scandalous libel, tending to draw into dispute his present Majesty's title to the crown, scandalizing the ministers of the gospel, established by law in this Province; falsifying the Holy Scriptures, representing the Church of Rome as the present Mother Church; and tending to raise divisions, jealousies and animosities among his Majesty's loving subjects of this Province." He was convicted but appealed to the Superior Court, where, after a long speech in his own defense, the jury brought in a verdict against him. The court sentenced him to pay a fine of £50 to the King, and to give two sureties in the sum of £100 for his good behavior for six months. — See Thomas's History of Printing, II, 427. A splendid copy of one of the rarest of State Histories. "Although the title indicates the intention to bring the history down to the date of publication, the narrative is suspended with the declaration of peace in 1783. Both volumes are largely devoted to the history of the border warfare with the Creeks and Cherokees. Numerous incidents relating to the savages of these nations, and their sanguinary attacks upon the frontiers, with sketches of their chiefs, and of the loyalist refugees who led them, are narrated. These were derived in many instances directly from the lips of some of the survivors of these bloody scenes, from manuscripts, or from printed documents, no longer accessible to the student of history." — Field.

Very scarce. The author defends Lord Cornwallis, and is very severe on Lieut. Col. Tarleton's "History," in which he says, "some facts have been withheld, and some mutilated, while others are raised to a pitch of importance, to which, if historical justice had been the author's object, they are by no means entitled."

2984 MARSHALL, J. The Life of George Washington, to which is prefixed, An Introduction, containing a Compendious view of the Colonies planted by the English on the Continent of North America.

London: Printed for Richard Phillips, ... 1804–1807.

The only complete edition of this indispensable work, the Colonial History being omitted in the late American edition. It is a book that contains original information and should be read. It is chiefly compiled from Washington's correspondence, and a life of Washington is of course a history of the American War. —Prof. Smyth.

4to, brown levant morocco, paneled and gilt sides, corner ornaments, gilt edges, by F. Bedford.

Contemporary portrait of Martyr inserted. A beautiful copy of a work of much rarity. "Martyr possessed eminent ability and learning, and is believed to be the first writer who noticed in his works the discovery of America by his countryman Columbus; as he is the first who published a treatise descriptive of the peculiarities of the natives of the New World, the first decade having been printed in 1504, and the first three decades in 1516. It was not until 1530, that the complete work in eight decades was printed. Eden translated the first edition of three decades, and printed it with some matters copied from Oviedo and other authors, in 1555. Willes followed his example, and produced the three decades with part of the fourth, and some additional material drawn from several historians. The first complete English edition was printed in 1597."— Field.

"Report" is ill calculated to give to those persons unacquainted with these volumes any adequate idea, or indeed the remotest conception of the vast amount of intelligence and scientific knowledge with which they abound. The topographical, historical and geological departments are all conducted by the ablest men of the day, whilst the departments of Natural History, Botany and Zoology have the ablest artists to adorn these works, and the most experienced Naturalists to describe them. These books are beginning to be appreciated now that they are not so easily obtained and that they are beyond the misfortune of gratuitous congressional distribution.

3140 MINUTES of the Trial and Examination of Certain Persons, in the Province of New York, Charged with being Engaged in a Conspiracy against the Authority of the Congress, and The Liberties of America. Philadelphia, 1865. 4to.

In the preface to those "Minutes," it is stated that they were "discovered (on the late capture of New York by the British troops) among the papers of a person who appears to have been Secretary to the Committee." They relate to a conspiracy against Congress, and particularly against Washington, whom the conspirators proposed to carry off.

"A Mr. Matthews," says the Monthly Review, "who was prominent in the conspiracy, was condemned to suffer death, but Congress resolved to postpone the execution of the sentence, and ordered him to be carried into Connecticut, there to be imprisoned till further orders."

The work contains some curious scandal about Washington, and Mary Gibbons, "a girl from New Jersey, of whom General Washington was very fond, and whom he maintained genteelly at a house near Mr. Skinner's."

3141 MINUTES of the Trial, &c. The same. Philadelphia, 1865. Folio, boards, uncut.

Illustrated by Seventy-Eight Plates and a Colored Map. By Samuel George Morton: Philadelphia. 78 Folio plates. Philadelphia, 1839. Folio, uncut.

Highly esteemed by ethnologists, and is certainly the result of a vast amount of original research, by a learned and zealous investigator. The cranial forms of more than forty Indian nations once inhabiting the two Americas, from Canada to Brazil, are examined and compared. Both in this country and in Europe; wherever learning and science are reverenced, Mr. Morton's work has been recognized, as one of the best contributions to exact knowledge of the history of Man, ever offered as the work of one individual, excepting always the works of Humboldt.

Glossary, or Collection of Words, Phrases, Names and Allusions to Customs, Proverbs, &c., which Require illustration, in the Works of English Authors, Particularly Shakespeare and his Contemporaries. New and Enlarged Edition, Edited by J. O'Halliwell, and Thomas Wright. 1876. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth.

The Glossary of Archdeacon Nares is by far the best and most useful work we possess for explaining and illustrating the obsolete language, and the customs and manners of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, and it is quite indispensable for the readers of the literature of the Elizabethan period. The additional words and examples are distinguished from those of the original text by a † prefixed to each. The work contains between five and six thousand additional examples, the result of original research, not merely supplementary to Nares, but to all other compilations of the kind.

3298 NARRAGANSETT CLUB. Publications of the Narragansett Club. First Series, Vols. I. to VI. [All published.] Providence, 1866–74. 6 vols., 4to, folded sheets, uncut.

Large paper. 25 copies only printed, excepting as respects Vol. VI, of which 150 copies were struck off.

The series embraces the following works:

I. Bibliographical Introduction to the Writings of Roger Williams. By Reuben Aldridge Guild, A.M. A Key into the Language of America. Edited by James Hammond Trumbull, A.M. Letter of John Cotton. Mr. Cotton's Letter Examined and Answered. Edited by Reuben Aldridge Guild, A M. MDCCCLXVI.

II. John Cotton's Answer to Roger Williams. Edited by Rev. J. Lewis Diman. [Also :] Queries of Highest Consideration. Edited by Reuben Aldridge Guild, A.M. MDCCCLXVII.

V. George Fox Digg'd out of his Burrowes. Edited by Rev. J. Lewis Diman. MDCCCLXXII.

VI. Letters of Roger Williams, 1652 to 1632. Now first collected. Edited by John Russell Bartlett. MDCCCLXXIV.

3299 NARRATIVE of a late Expedition against the Indians; with an Account of the Barbarous Execution of Col. Crawford; and the wonderful escape of Dr. Knight & John Slover from Captivity in 1782. To which is added, A Narrative of the Captivity & Escape of Mrs. Frances Scott, An Inhabitant of Washington County Virginia. Andover [n.d.]. 24mo, pp. 46.

3300 NARRATIVE, A, of some of the Adventures, and Sufferings of a Revolutionary Soldier; with Anecdotes. Written by Himself. Hallowell, 1830. 12mo.

3301 NARRATIVE, A, of Occurrences in the Indian Countries of North America, since the Connexion of the Right Hon. the Earl of Selkirk with the Hudson's Bay Company. London, 1817. 8vo, uncut.

This narrative is the second of that long catalogue of statements, histories, and narratives to which the murder of Governor Semple by the half breed Indians, in the service of the Northwest Fur Company, gave existence. The first was by Lord Selkirk.—See Sabin's Dictionary, No. 20699.

3302 NARRATIVE. Privations and Sufferings of United States Officers and Soldiers while Prisoners of War in the Hands of the Rebel Authorities. Philad'a., (sic.) 1864. 8vo, cuttings added.

3303 NARRATIVE, A, of the Early Days and Reminiscences of Oceola Nikkanochee, a young Seminole Indian; in Florida; with a Brief History of his Nation, and Oceola. 3 plates. London, 1841. 8vo, pp. 228.

Exceedingly interesting. "An imbecile old chief, called Enematkla, was the first to declare himself a traitor to his tribe, by affixing his sign-manual; he was followed by a few others of inferior grade, until it was submitted to Oceola, who, with all the pride of offended dignity thus offered to himself and his countrymen, with indignation sparkling in his eye, and a contemptuous curl of the lip, drew from his bosom a dagger, and with a countenance that seemed to strike terror into all by whom he was opposed, he hurled the trusty steel with such force into the hateful document, that it passed fairly through the table, exclaiming at the same time, "There is my mark."

3304 NARRATIVES of the Days of the Reformation, Chiefly from the MSS. of John Foxe, edited by Nichols. Camden Soc., 1859.

3305 NARRATIVE REMARKS ... and Historic Criticisms, on the New England Historical and Genealogical Society. Albany, 1874. 4to.

3306 NASH, Fred. Picturesque Views of the City of Paris and its Environs; consisting of Views on the Seine, Public Buildings, Characteristic Scenery, etc. Literary Department by John Scott and M. La Boissiere. 60 fine steel engravings, India proofs, on large paper. Very fine. London, 1823. 2 vols., 4to, half morocco.

3307 NASH. The same. 8vo.

3308 NASH, S. Nash Family. 1853.

3309 NASH, Sol. Journal of Solomon Nash, edited by C. J. Bushnell. New York: privately printed, 1865. 8vo.

3311 NASON. A Memoir of Susannah Rowson. Albany, 1870.

3319 NEAL, D. History of the Puritans; or the Rise, Principles, and Sufferings of the Protestant Dissenters. London [n.d.]. 2 vols., 8vo, half morocco.

The Quarterly Review calls this the most dishonest book in the English language, but it must be recollected that this review is a tory in its politics. This is the first edition and is essential in an American library.

3320 NEALE, F. A. Residence in Siam. London, 1852. 12mo.

3321 NEANDER, J. First Planting of Christianity. Translated by J. E. Ryland. London, Bohn. 2 vols., post 8vo, cloth.

3388 NEW-YORK. Documents Relative to the Colonial History of the State of New-York. .. Edited by E. B. O'Callaghan, M.D. With a General Introduction. Albany, 1856-1861.

"The public records of the State of New York are chiefly, in the office of the Secretary of State at Albany. They are as various in their character, as they are voluminous in their extent. Most of them relate to, and illustrate the History of State; and without them no accurate or detailed knowledge of that history can be gained." These volumes contain translations of all the Early Dutch Records, besides a mass of documents bringing the History of the State down to its political existence as a member of an independent federation.

3900 RALEGH, Sir W. The Work of Sir Walter Ralegh, Kt., now first Collected, to which are Prefixed the Lives of the Author by Oldys and Burch. Oxford, MDCCCXXIX. 8vo, boards, half morocco.

This admirable writer has been thought a just model for the reformation of our language. His style is pure, nervous, and majestic, and much better suited to the dignity of history than that of Lord Bacon.

3901 RAMAGE, Dr. C. Tait. Beautiful Thoughts from Latin Authors, French and Italian Authors, German and Spanish and Greek Authors. 1878. 4 vols., 8vo, half morocco, gilt top.

The chief characteristic of these volumes is that they quote only from the known Classical Authors, each passage has a distinct reference to the work of the author, the book, ode, play, and where it was practicable the line, so that the passage may be found immediately and without difficulty; to each Thought or Passage there is appended an English translation and where a poet is quoted, there is a poetical translation; the heading to each indicates the subject, copious Latin and English indexes, the subject is indicated, at the same time the leading idea and drift of each quotation will be seen at a glance.

Fine copy. Kaulbach has portrayed the expression of brute physiognomy with a force and felicity hitherto unequalled in design as unsurpassed in excellence. His series of engravings, illustrating Reynard, very far surpass anything before achieved of a similar nature. In Vedder's Preface, these illustrations are yet more highly praised: "Even the German Shakespeare, Goethe," he says, "has made it the subject of a great poem; and kindred genius, in the person of Kaulbach has illustrated the work by the finest series of pictorial embellishments with which a book was ever adorned."

3969 REPLY, A, to General Joseph Reed's Remarks, on a Late Publication in the Independent Gazetteer, with some Observations on his Address to the People of Pennsylvania, by John Cadwallader. Philadelphia, 1783. 8vo.

"These original editions are one of the rarest pieces in Pennsylvania literature. The occasion of the dispute was the assertion, by Gen. Cadwallader, that in Dec., 1776, before the battle of Trenton, Gen. Reed was so much depressed by the sad state of American affairs as to meditate withdrawing from the service. This assertion Gen. Reed denies, and Gen. Cadwallader defends, in very heated and bitter language. The dispute was revived on the publication of the ninth volume of Mr. Bancroft's history.

4165 [SANDERS, Daniel Clark.] A | History | of the | Indian Wars with the | First Settlers of the Uni | ted States, | Particularly | in New England. | Written in Vermont. | Montpelier, Vt. | 1812. 16mo, morocco.

The mystery which surrounded the authorship, history, and origin of this very rare volume, has been slowly dispelled by successive fragments of information. So few copies have survived the holocaust to which it was devoted, that its very existence was unknown to the most zealous collectors of Indian and Vermont history. Published annonymously, without preface, it was known to but few that the author was the Rev. Daniel Clark Sanders, President of the University of Vermont. Immediately after its appearance, some person, evidently a personal enemy of the author, published an acrimonious critique upon the book, in the Liberal and Philosophical Repository. The animus of the critic was evidenced, not only by the bitterness of his language, but by his ignorance of the subject of Indian wars, being more profound than that of the author of the book he scored. Such was the effect of the article upon either Mr. Sanders, or the publishers, that the work was suppressed. But very few copies could have escaped the hands that were now as zealous to destroy, as they had lately been to create. In fact, so nearly complete was the destruction of the book, that it was forgotten by those who professed to know most of its author, his biographers. Neither Thompson, Williams, or Hemmenway, who published memoirs of Sanders, mention his authorship of this book.

4166 SANDERSON, J. Biography of the Signers to the Declaration of Independence. By John Sanderson. [And Others.] Philadelphia, 1820–27. 9 vols., imp. 8vo, boards, uncut.

Beautiful copy. Large paper. Excessively rare. We know of but two other copies on large paper.

4167 SANGER, W. W. History of Prostitution. New York, 1859. 8vo, half calf.

4168 SANSON, H. Memoirs of the Sansons from Private Notes and Documents, 1688–1847. London, 1876. 2 vols. in 1, 12mo.

4169 SANTAREM, Viscount. Researches respecting Americus Vespucius and his Voyages. ... Translated. Boston, 1850. 16mo, uncut.

This interesting work throws much light on obscure portions of history, of value to our own historiographers.

4170 SARCASTIC NOTICES of the Long Parliament; A List of the "Members that Held places, both Civil and Military, Contrary to the Self-Denying ordinance of April 3rd, 1645; with the Sums of Money and Lands which they Divided among themselves." London, 1863. Small 4to, half morocco.

Gives many curious particulars about this famous Assembly not mentioned by Historians or Biographers. Only a very few copies printed.

4171 SARGENT, F. W. England; The United States, and the Southern Confederacy. Second Edition. London, 1864.

4172 SARGENT, L. M. Dealings with the Dead, by a Sexton of the Old School. Boston, 1856. 2 vols., 8vo, cloth.

4173 SARGENT, Winthrop. The History of an Expedition against Fort Du Quesne, in 1755, under Major-General Edward Braddock. Philadelphia, 1855. 8vo, uncut.

4180 SARGENT. The Life and Career of Major John André, Adjutant-General of the British Army in America. Boston, 1861. Large paper copy, one volume extended to four, elegantly bound in crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt top, uncut.

Mr. Winthrop Sargent narrates the interesting and yet painful history of this hero in a style which is both elegant and attractive. The compiler of this catalogue, in conversing with him regarding this book, was informed that he had written it with a peculiar eye to the wants of illustrators. He has mentioned on each page a name either of a person or place. This is one of the few large paper copies issued and the owner, with a special affection for the Andreana of the American Revolution, has inserted in this work 103 illustrations comprising many portraits of great rarity and a number of scarce views, also some finely executed drawings, portraits of André and others, and several beautifully illuminated illustrations, expressly made for this copy.

4182 SARGENT, W. The same. Large paper. Boston, 1861. 8vo, half morocco, uncut.

4183 SARGENT. The Loyalist Poetry of the Revolution, Edited by Winthrop Sargent. Philadelphia. 1857. Small 4to.

UNIQUE COPY, in the sheets and ready for binding. The illustrations collected for this work and inlaid to the same size, are selected with taste and judgment. To describe the rare prints and dilate upon the excellent impressions would take too much space for there are about 160 portraits and plates and not one poor impression or valueless illustration; many are from private plates, since destroyed, and others, especially among the American portraits, are scarcely obtainable in so fine a condition. Included is a fine drawing of John Adams, and an engraved portrait of Winthrop Sargent.

4184 SARGENT. The Loyalist Poetry of the Revolution, Edited by Winthrop Sargent. Phila., 1857. Small 4to, morocco, uncut.

99 copies printed. Fisher's copy sold for $85. Of great rarity.

4185 SARGENT. The Loyal Verses of Joseph Stansbury and Doctor Jonathan Odell; relating to the American Revolution. Now first edited by Winthrop Sargent. Albany, 1860. 4to, half green morocco, gilt top, uncut.

One of a few copies only printed for the editor upon paper designed to match that of the "Loyalist Poetry." Very scarce. "It is well known that, during our Revolutionary war, a very large part, if not an actual majority, of the American people remained more or less attached to the cause of the Crown. And considering how much of the education and intelligence of the community was included in their ranks, it will not be surprising to find that the Loyalists of that day were far from remiss in their efforts to vindicate their own conduct, or to attack that of their opponents. But as from the outset, with very rare exceptions, the press over all the continent was in the hands of the Whigs, they were thus shut out for the time from the popular ear; and since the close of the struggle, their literary productions have sunk into oblivion. Nevertheless, much of the Loyalist poetry of that season possesses a degree of vigor and of real merit worthy of a better cause and a better fate; and Mr. Sargent has rendered an acceptable service in rescuing it from neglect."

4205 SCHIMMELPENNICK, M. A. Select Memoirs of Port Royal. London, 1835. 2 vols., 8vo, calf gilt, red edges.

Very scarce. The only work of any extent in the English language relative to these pietists.

4206 SCHLEGEL. Dramatic Literature, Phil. of History, Lectures on Modern History. London, 1846. 3 vols., post 8vo.

4207 SCHMIDT PHISELDEK. Europe and America or Relative State of the Civilized World at a Future Period. Copenhagen, 1820.

4208 SCHOOLCRAFT. Information respecting the History, Condition and Prospects of the Indian Tribes of the United States. Collected and Prepared under the Direction of the Bureau of Indian affairs, per Act of Congress March 3d, 1847. Illustrated by S. Eastman. Philadelphia, 1853. 5 vols., 4to, cloth.

"This great work is a complete Thesaurus — an overflowing treasury of knowledge, respecting the Aborigines of America. It embraces their history, ethnography, antiquities, and languages; their ancient and modern geography; their manners and customs, religion and superstitions; their agriculture, commerce, and trade; their ornamental arts, and their physical and intellectual peculiarities. All these subjects are treated, not in a general and summary manner, but in detail, each topic being patiently and thoroughly discussed and exhausted; the work, although mainly executed by the author's own hand, having received the contributions of many savans thoroughly conversant with particular subjects embraced in its pages.

4209 SCHOOLCRAFT. Discovery of the Sources of the Mississippi River in 1820. Philadelphia, 1855. 8vo.

4210 SCHOOLCRAFT. Notes on the Iroquois; or contributions to American History, Antiquities and General Ethnology. Plates. Albany, 1847. 8vo.
